THE RECORD HERALD LOCATED IN WASHINGTON CENTER!

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, OHIO – The Hadler Companies, owner and operator of the Washington Center, and a proud member of the Washington Court House community since 1967, is pleased to announce the Record Herald has relocated to the center in November 2010. The Record Herald is owned by the Ohio Community Media and is the local newspaper of Fayette County. Ohio Community Media, consisting of 14 daily newspapers, 56 non-daily newspapers, and a number of niche magazine and tabloid publications, as well as various online applications is well positioned to continue as the number one provider for local community news.

Located at 320 Washington Square in Washington Court House, the newspaper joins the Ohio Thrift Store, Peebles, Ace Hardware and Family Dollar in the Washington Center shopping plaza. The 4,000 square-foot location is where the Record Herald writes the daily paper about the latest news and sports events.

“The Record Herald is a great addition to the shopping center’s existing stores,” said George Hadler, CEO of The Hadler Companies. “Each day the Record Herald continues to add to the history books of the area. The events and the reporting of such events have shaped and nurtured the local community.”

The Hadler Companies have been serving central Ohio businesses since 1947, and is a family company that owns and manages prime shopping center sites with approximately 2,000,000 square feet of retail space in the Midwest. They also manage the Hadler Realty Company, Hadler Real Estate Management Company, TransAmerica Building Company, SunLight Cleaners, and Columbus Square Bowling Palace.
